BRUSSELS CO-PRODUCTION FORUM UP: UP-AND-COMING PRODUCERS RULES & REGULATIONS

I. PRESENTATION & ORGANISATION

The Brussels Co-Production Forum is an initiative that aims at supporting promising feature films in development and connecting them with potential partners. It is divided in two different sections : the Gap Financing Sessions and UP : Up-and-coming Producers. The Brussels Co-Production Forum will take place for the 5th time during the Brussels International Film Festival (22.06 > 03.07.2021), on Tuesday, June 29th and Wednesday, June 30th 2021.

As the BRIFF's team has always had at heart the promotion of emerging talents, UP: Up-and-coming Producers was created in order to put into the spotlight projects held by producers at the beginning of their career. Through one-to-one meetings, workshops and other networking events, the selected producers will have the opportunity to create a network of potential partners and gain tools to further develop their projects.

The event will consist of:

- Pitching session of selected projects
- One-to-one business meetings

If selected, producers will have the opportunity to:

- Pitch their project in front of important producers.
- Have individual meetings with different professionals to defend their project.
- Build contacts to find public and private funding for their projects in case of an agreement.
- Take part in the Brussels International Film Festival.

English will be the working language during the forum. Therefore, a good level of English is advised for anyone willing to participate.

IMPORTANT: Given the special and unpredictable circumstances occurring this year internationally due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the BRIFF organization advises all applicants of the possibility that, if the festival and its activities cannot be held under normal circumstances, it could be postponed, canceled or held in a different format than the foreseen. In the event that one of the previous situations occurs and should the circumstances modify the regulations in any way, all participants will be advised as soon as possible.
