BRUSSELS CO-PRODUCTION FORUM UP: UP-AND-COMING PRODUCERS RULES & REGULATIONS

I. PRESENTATION & ORGANISATION

The Brussels Co-Production Forum is an initiative that aims at supporting promising feature films in development and connecting them with potential partners. It is divided in two different sections : the Gap Financing Sessions and UP: Up-and-coming Producers. The 6th Brussels Co-Production Forum will take place during the Brussels International Film Festival (23.06 > 02.07.2022), on Wednesday, June 29th and Thursday, June 30th, 2022.

As the BRIFF's team has always had at heart the promotion of emerging talents, UP: Up-and-coming Producers was created in order to put into the spotlight projects held by producers at the beginning of their career. Through one-to-one meetings, workshops and other networking events, the selected producers will have the opportunity to create a network of potential partners and gain tools to further develop their projects.

Music & Cinema Award - In partnership with the Festival International du Film MUSIC & CINEMA in Marseille:

Producers looking for a composer to develop an original score for their project can apply to the Music & Cinema Award as well.

The award will be granted during the Brussels Co-Production Forum and the awarded project will automatically be selected to be part of the European Market for Film Music Composition of the Festival International du Film MUSIC & CINEMA.

English will be the working language during the forum. Therefore, a good level of English is advised for anyone willing to participate.

IMPORTANT: Given the special and unpredictable circumstances occurring internationally due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the BRIFF organization advises all applicants of the possibility that, if the festival and its activities cannot be held under normal circumstances, it could be postponed, canceled or held in a different format than the foreseen. In the event that one of the previous situations occurs and should the circumstances modify the regulations in any way, all participants will be advised as soon as possible.
